SIMONI
CONSTRUCTION GROUP

ABOUT US

With decades of combined experience in golf course construction, operation, and ownership, the management group of Simoni Construction LLC has a unique perspective on course improvement and construction.

Led by a Class A golf course superintendent and golf course owner, the team applies an “owner’s eye” to provide high-quality work while efficiently managing the club’s costs and expenses.

Understanding that customer experience is paramount to a golf course, Simoni Construction LLC prides itself on delivering excellent results with minimal disturbance to the golfer and other course employees.
